IN MEMORIAM

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY 35th PRESIDENT 1917-1963

The members of the graduating class of A.R.H.S. feel that it is both fitting and proper to include John F. Kennedy in this year's "Spirit" Gold Bug, because he, possibly more than any other man, best exemplified the feeling of Spirit. Not only did he embody, as our President, the spirit of freedom, strength, courage and conviction that form so great a part of our heritage, but he was also an inspiring example of the spirit of youth and exploration. Perhaps his visit to Amherst, only a few short weeks before his young life was so senselessly taken, has made us feel even closer to him than we have a right to feel. But whether or not this is true, we of Amherst will not soon forget the mysterious glow that surrounded him; a glow, which, we would like to think, was his Spirit.

DEDICATION

The class of 1964 wishes to dedicate its Goldbug to its class advisor, Kenneth Caouette. For three years he has given his time and co-operation to help make our high school years memorable. His cheerful guidance has done much to sustain and direct the spirit of the class.

*Best wishes to a real gentleman,
Ken Caouette*

To the Class of '64

May you grow in friendliness as you have been friendly here; for the world needs this attribute more than any other.

May your aims be high, and may your aspirations be fulfilled; for the future of the world has no great promise if our youth aspire only to that which is common and vulgar.

May the enthusiasm and energy you showed here be undiminished in the years ahead; for the world needs an intense, alert people if mankind is to be preserved.

The 1963 Amherst Regional High School Football Team finished the season with 3-4 record. The Hurricanes played well throughout the season, but had a few bad breaks, starting with Jim Parkinson's injury in the Marhar game, and later with Roger Jacques's injury in the Frontier Game. This left the team weaker in the backfield, and much thinner in the line. After a crushing defeat at the hands of South Hadley, the 'Canes snapped back and barely missed tying for 1st place in the league.

The Cain's ended a good season with a 14-5 record. The team had its troubles at the beginning of the season, losing to Northampton, Hopkins, and South Hadley, each by less than 5 points. Then they came back and won all the remaining games except two. The Cain's tied Smith Academy for second place in the Hampshire league. Brian Thompson, in his first year as a varsity starter, managed to obtain high scoring and rebounding honors. Capt. Tim Bosworth ran a close second in these categories.

Amherst, after being tagged the "under-dog," fought its way to the top and clinched the 1964 Western Mass. Small Schools' Tournament Championship. Under the leadership of Coach Grutchfield, the boys showed that "the will to win, won!"

CROSS-COUNTRY

This year the cross-country team had another successful season under the leadership of Coach Doug Grutchfield. Dick Stevens paced the Hurricane runners by placing first in all meets and shattering many records. Myron Robinson, Tim Bosworth, Phil Torrey and Tom Rice gave the team plenty of strength. The Canes ended with a 9-0 record.

2nd Western Mass Tournament

The TRACK HURRICANES blew through their 1963 season undefeated, which was the best record ever compiled by an Amherst track team.

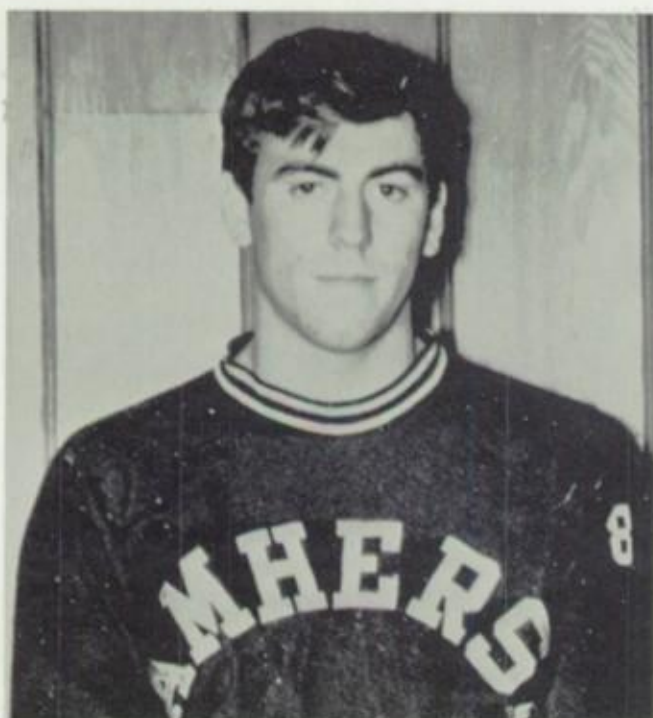

The team was led by Pete Johnson, who scored more than 100 points. Other boys with high scores were Bart Drake, Paul Joy, and Art Cashin.

New records were set in pole vault by Pete Johnson, high jump by Tim Bosworth, high hurdles by Paul Joy, mile by Dick Stevens, 440 by Art Cashin, half mile by Myron Robinson; both Dick and Myron placed first at the Western Massachusetts Tournament with Dick setting a new record. Other steady performers were Bruce Colby and Jim Boicourt.

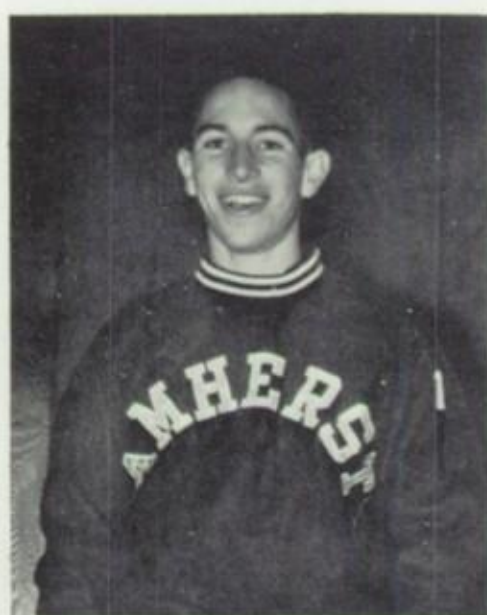

Much of the credit for our fine record must go to our great coach Doug Grutchfield and assistant Don Drew.

We are looking forward to another great season in 1964 with most of the lettermen returning.

Coach's Corner

The outlook for success by this year's ARHS football team is a cautious one. This opinion was voiced by head coach Charles Abramson before the season's opening game with Ware. At the present time Coach Abramson is not overly optimistic about the Hurricanes' playing. He is also concerned about the lack of depth in the backfield. Amherst will have a balanced attack of passing and running if the backfield does not meet any

Lucas. Don is a big guy and he uses his weight effectively. He weighs 230. The two end spots are held down by All-League performers, Barton Drake and Roy Jeffrey. Drake is one of the largest and strongest ends in the league. Amherst's line is one of the largest that the Canes have ever put on the field. (It averages about 195 pounds, including ends; and with a little work, the line may be one of the better ones also.)

MAROON TEAM

WHITE TEAM

The two Volleyball teams had a very successful season this year, losing only four games out of sixteen. At each meet two games were played by each team, each game, one half hour long. The Maroon team consisted mainly of Freshmen and Seniors, which created a surprisingly quick and co-ordinated, besides jovial, team. The White team was almost totally Juniors who found great support in Kathy Murphy's spiking ability and in everyone's deep-set serves.

12 WINS - 2 LOSSES

1963-1964 HISTORY

The high point of the season was the team's participation in the Second Annual Massachusetts Girls' Basketball Championships at Canton, Mass., where they were defeated by Frontier Regional (who went on to win the Class II Championships). Frontier and Amherst were the only teams from Western Massachusetts to compete.

As seen in the "headlines" on the previous page, the team walked away with virtually an undefeated season, losing to Pioneer once by two points, and to Frontier in the tournament. Prior to the tournament, we met Frontier on home soil and beat them for the first time in many years; we were, in fact, the only team to beat them this year!

Other interesting facts:

A new ARHS total-score record was set by Kathy Murphy with a total of 240 points; a fantastic job, but quite believable after seeing her "spike" her shots from all over the court. Mary Searle is to be commended also, for her fine record of 164 points.

In defense, Cindy Stoddard, Cheryl Roberts and Joyce Jacque were more than outstanding. Quite a few times, Joyce came through to score in her double role as both guard and forward.

This year the team loses four three-year players: Cindy Stoddard, Bertha Fyden, Margie Owen, and Happy Hull. Although these four are going, Miss Lawson will have a veteran team next year . . . maybe good enough to win the tournament in 1965! Let's hope so. Good luck to next year's team!

"Joanne, you look all fagged out!"

"All right, all right . . . if you win this game, I'll let you go barefoot in gym!"

GIRLS' J. V. BASKETBALL

KNEELING: I. Nelson, J. Tenney, J. Gwozdz, N. Stowell, E. Cuddeback, S. Williams, L. Robinson, N. Woodfork.
STANDING: J. Hemenway, J. Crooker, C. Sacco, P. Karch, N. Russell, J. Crossman, G. Collins, B. Kelly, B. Russell, K. Smyth, C. Rice.

The Junior Varsity team had a very successful season—eleven wins, two losses. Cheryl Sacco was high scorer with 45 points, with Liz Cuddeback having a close second of 44 points. Two other players almost tied as far as points go. Gloria Collins had 24, and Judy Crossman had 23. (This is quite remarkable for Judy, because she is a guard!) On defense with Judy, and doing a mighty good job, too, were Joyce Crooker and Ingrid Nelson. The team as a whole averaged 17.5 points per game. A few of the girls got valuable experience by playing a few times in the Varsity games; two of them also went to the Canton tournament with the varsity, and did a good job. Next year these girls will see a lot of action, and let's hope it's winning action!

The softball team had a very close season in more ways than one: they had a 5-4 season, and lost three of the 4 games by one point! For three years, Pat Shumay did a magnificent job as catcher. Sue Markert, Gert Jones and Bertha Fydenkevez did fine jobs in the field and on base, and Barbara Crossman came through with some good pitching.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Amherst Regional High's Student Council continued to function this year as an example of organized student government. Under the guidance of its advisor, Mr. Crouse, the Council succeeded in presenting the annual "no-talent show," a Valentine dance and a book fair. The Council also sponsored the annual student-faculty basketball game which brought a large crowd of onlookers and about $180 dollars for the scholarship fund. The officers of Student Council are Mike Hayden—President, Robin Bleckwehl—Vice-President, Leslie Durgan—Secretary, and Linda Johnson—Treasurer.

PRO MERITO

Pro Merito honors are awarded to Amherst Regional students capable of obtaining and keeping the high standards of academic achievement required by the organization. Members are honored with special privileges such as a permanent library pass and an extra set of school books. In the past Pro Merito has sponsored guest speakers, a special Pro Merito banquet, and a college program including many of our past graduates who are presently attending college.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

LEADERS CLUB

The Leaders Club, under the direction of Mr. Abramson, is organized for boys especially interested in physical education. The function of the club is to promote good sportsmanship and develop leadership qualities. With Barry Roberts as president, Brian Thompson as vice-president, and Tom Rice as secretary-treasurer, they set the examples for future leaders.

GRAPHIC

Under the direction of Mrs. Dumont and Sharon Nanartonis, editor-in-chief, the Graphic staff published eight issues. This year the Graphic has been one of the most active of the school's extracurricular activities. As well as providing the students with accurate and entertaining coverage of school news, the Graphic has rendered a number of additional services to the ARHS student body. The Graphic has supplemented its colorful coverage of school events with quality humor, a special column by Mitsu Shiboh, Graphic Salutes, paper exchange, and outstanding editorials. Allen Torry, business manager, and Marsha Wagner, paper exchange editor, assisted greatly in making the Graphic a lively paper. All the members of the Graphic staff have taken the initiative and responsibility of giving Amherst Regional High School a fine newspaper.

FIRST ROW: Amory Lovins, Cynthia Dusch, Sharon Nanartonis, Paula Surrey, Tom Colby, Elizabeth Cuddeback, Elizabeth Roetter, Marty Wygant.
